

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, The City of Milton, Georgia is a newly incorporated City in Fulton County, Georgia and the new owner of a public safety precinct located at 750 Hickory Flat Road, Milton, Georgia; and
- WHEREAS, At the time the precinct was opened it was the policy of Fulton County to name buildings or portions thereof as deemed appropriate by the Board of Commissioners of Fulton County; and
- WHEREAS, On August 19, 1991, around 8:00 p.m. Fulton County Police Officer Christopher B. May responded to a "person shot" call and assisted the injured after arrival; and
- WHEREAS, After assisting the injured, and while checking next door for possible leads or suspects, Officer May encountered a hidden perpetrator with a high-powered rifle; and
- WHEREAS, Officer May was shot and killed by the perpetrator while in the line of duty; and
- WHEREAS, Christopher Bieker May dedicated his life to the Fulton County Police Department in a manner such that it was fitting that a Fulton County facility be dedicated to him; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Milton wishes to formally acknowledge its intent to keep the facility named after Officer May; and
- WHEREAS, Officer May's courageous actions in 1991 are yet another example of the dedicated service of the officers of the Fulton County Police Department to the citizens of the City of Milton;

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, hereby dedicate and proclaim the public safety precinct located at 750 Hickory Flat Road in Milton, Georgia to Officer May and officially name the facility the "Christopher B. May Public Safety Building".

Given under my hand and the Seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 2nd day of August, 2007

(Seal)

Joe Lockwood
Mayor

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Joe Lockwood", written over a horizontal line.