

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The City of Milton is grateful for its numerous volunteers upon whom the City is dependent and who strive to make Milton a desirable place for all citizens and visitors; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that the City recognize all volunteers and encourage others to follow their example; and

WHEREAS, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints approached the City of Milton, Georgia, to host a cleanup of Birmingham Park for their Community Day of Service; and

WHEREAS, On March 2, 2009, the Mayor and City Council unanimously consented to the clean up within the City to occur; and

WHEREAS, Untold hours of hard work and planning followed to organize the event; and

WHEREAS, In an overwhelming show of support, on April 25, 2009, more than 380 volunteers participated in the clean-up; and

WHEREAS, Five dumpsters of trash were removed, 1.5 miles of barbed wire fence were taken down, three quarters of mile roadway right-of-way were cleared, six acres of pasture bush-hogged and cleared of excess tree growth, and the Old Taylor Farm House was cleaned and repaired;

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, hereby recognize the tireless efforts and achievements of Milton citizens Gordon Hunter, Jim Brown and the members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, as well as all of the hundreds of others who participated, including food vendors, for their outstanding work in organizing and participation in the Birmingham Park Clean up in the City of Milton, Georgia.

Given under our hand and Seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on the 18th Day of May, 2009
