

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, The special character of the City of Milton is founded not only in its woods and streams and horse pastures, but in the community-oriented outlook of its citizens; and
- WHEREAS, The recognition of the unique needs and travails of friends and neighbors is an important part of developing such a community mindset, even amongst the younger generations of Milton residents; and
- WHEREAS, In June 2009, the true spirit of community was demonstrated by two young softball enthusiasts when their relationship led to a very successful fundraising effort to support Camp Kudzu; and
- WHEREAS, Friendship and a recognition of the special needs of diabetic children led to a softball tournament in which 32 teams participated, and the two girls were able to raise five-thousand dollars in support of this worthy cause; and
- WHEREAS, Camp Kudzu is a non-profit organization providing education, recreation and peer-networking programs for Georgia's children with diabetes; and
- WHEREAS, The people of Milton and the beneficiaries at Camp Kudzu are proud of two of these two young citizens, their friendship, the strong community bond that brought them together to support those in need.

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, hereby proclaim and applaud Caitlin Davies and Heather Kipniss as exemplary members of the Milton community and of the State of Georgia, and do urge all citizens to join in this celebration.

Given under my hand and Seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on the 21st day of September, 2009.

Joe Lockwood, Mayor
