

Proclamation

Honoring the Road to Safety Program and its first winner, Alpharetta High School Student Andrew Jeschke

- WHEREAS, The Road to Safety Program was created in 2010 by Milton residents Lisa Cauley and Tim Enloe, and;
- WHEREAS, Their companies, Protect Milton, Inc. and Access Milton, sponsored the program with the Fulton County Board of Education to educate, inform, and increase the awareness of the distractions and dangers teenagers face as new and inexperienced drivers with an ultimate goal of saving lives, and;
- WHEREAS, The contest allowed students to submit a two-minute video they created that sent a clear message to other students about the distractions and dangers they all face as new drivers, and;
- WHEREAS, This year's contest was the first annual event and included participants from Alpharetta and Milton high schools and support from the Milton and Alpharetta police departments, and;
- WHEREAS, Next year's contest will include all seven Fulton County high schools north of the Chattahoochee River, and;
- WHEREAS, This year's winner was Alpharetta High School student Andrew Jeschke, who won a full day of defensive driving at the Richard Petty Defensive Driving school at Atlanta Motor Speedway.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, hereby proclaim our commitment to the Road to Safety Program in the City of Milton, Georgia and congratulate Andrew Jeschke for his work and creativity.

Given under our hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 29th Day of December, 2010.

Joe Lockwood
Mayor

(Seal)