

Proclamation

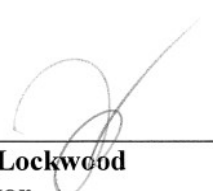

Public Service Recognition Week May 1-7, 2011

- WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, and local levels, and these unsung heroes do the work of our nation; and
- WHEREAS, public employees take not only jobs, but oaths, and are bound by ethical codes; and
- WHEREAS, many public servants including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the City of Milton, the State of Georgia, the United States, and the world; and
- WHEREAS, public servants also include teachers, elected officials, city staff, citizen committee and board members, and countless other paid and unpaid occupations and positions; and
- WHEREAS, public servants in the City of Milton have worked tirelessly to ensure the safety and welfare of our citizens, raise awareness and appreciation for the diversity in our community, preserve our land, waterways, and historic structures, encourage economic growth, and make improvements to our infrastructure – all of which serve to improve the quality of life of our current residents and generations to come; and
- WHEREAS, day in and day out, these public servants provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency, integrity, and honor; and
- WHEREAS, without public servants at every level, continuity and progress would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;

Now, therefore, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, Georgia, do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 – 7, 2011, as Public Service Recognition Week in the City of Milton, and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county, and local, and urge all citizens to join in expressing their appreciation to these individuals.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 2nd Day of May, 2011.

Joe Lockwood
Mayor