

Proclamation

Constitution Week 2011

- WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States, the guardian of our liberties, is a product of reflection and choice, embodying the principles of limited government in a Republic dedicated to rule by law, not by men; and
- WHEREAS, September 17, 2011 marks the two hundred and twenty-fourth anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America by the Constitution Convention; and
- WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to accord official recognition to this memorable anniversary, and to the patriotic exercises that will commemorate the occasion; and
- WHEREAS, Public Law 915, guarantees the issue of a proclamation each year by the President of the United States of America designating September 17th through September 23rd as Constitution Week.

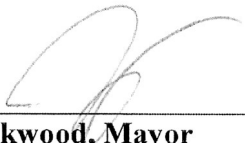

This Constitution Week, we, the City of Milton, urge all citizens to study the Constitution and to express gratitude for the privilege of America citizenship in our Republic, functioning under the superb body of laws - the Constitution of the United States of America.

Now, therefore, I, Joe Lockwood as Mayor of the City of Milton, proclaim the week of September 17, 2011 through September 23, 2011 as Constitution Week in the City of Milton and ask our citizens to reaffirm the ideals the Framers of the Constitution had in 1787.

Presented to The Chestatee River Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Given under our hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 19th day of September, 2011.

(Seal)

Joe Lockwood, Mayor
