

Proclamation

In Recognition of the Volunteers who made the 2011 Crossroads at Crabapple Antique and Art Festival a Success

WHEREAS, The City of Milton is grateful for its numerous volunteers upon whom the city is dependent and who strive to make Milton a desirable place for all citizens, businesses and visitors; and

WHEREAS, Untold hours of hard work and planning went into organizing this yearly event and it is imperative the city recognize all volunteers and encourage others to follow their example; and

WHEREAS, An antique and art festival has been a tradition in the Crabapple area since Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Nine and is now an annual event organized by the Crabapple Community Association with the support of its sponsors including the City of Milton; and

WHEREAS, On October 1st, the Crossroads at Crabapple Antique and Art Festival once again brought thousands of people to the Historic Crabapple Crossroads Community located within the city of Milton; and

WHEREAS, As in previous years, the event helped promote the Crabapple Crossroads and the City of Milton and in doing so provided residents, business owners and visitors with a lasting, positive impression of the city and brought thousands of dollars worth of business to the Crabapple area; and

WHEREAS, The Crabapple Community Association, and many other volunteers, including Sally Rich-Kolb, Tom Kolb, Slade Kolb, Ron Hardy, Mike Poe, Jane Ames, Tass Welch, Sharon Lockwood, Alison Parks, Steven Cash, Jason Wright, Matt Newman, Kat Walker, Beatriz Philips, Candy Deller, Amanda and Steve Quintana, Evelyn Hardy, Cindy Eade, Kelly Reinkemeyer, Peyton Jamison, Brielle Thompson, Patti Parker Silva, Tracy Eller, Helen and Gordon Benson, and Lisa Matteson gave their precious time and effort to make sure the event was a success.

Now, therefore, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, Georgia, hereby recognize and sincerely thank these volunteers for all their hard work in making the 2011 Crabapple Antique and Art Festival a successful event.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 7th day of November, 2011.

Joe Lockwood, Mayor
